

Colleges and Universities

We Are Your Resource • www.alamotitle-austin.com • 512.483.6710

Alamo Title

Austin Community College

Enrollment: 35,798 college-credit students (fall 2008)
Tuition, fees: $648 per 12 hours in district, $1,704 per 12 hours out of district
Location: 5930 Middle Fiskville Road (administrative office)
Website: www.austincc.edu/Phone: 512-223-7000

As one of 50 community college districts in Texas, ACC provides access to high-quality education at affordable tuition rates and produces the backbone of the local workforce. Among the largest and fastest growing two-year colleges in the nation—ACC is home to more than 35,000 credit students, 2,350 faculty and staff, and seven full-service campuses with number eight opening in 2010.

Concordia University Texas

Enrollment: 2,269 (fall 2008)
Tuition, fees: $21,200
Location: 11400 Concordia University Drive
Website: www.concordia.edu/Phone: 512-313-3000

Concordia University Texas is part of The Concordia University System (CUS). The CUS builds national identity, enables cooperative endeavors, and enhances the strength of the colleges and universities of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. It engages students of diverse ages and cultures in quality, Christ-centered, Lutheran higher education for lives of service to Church and community.

Huston-Tillotson University

Undergraduate enrollment: 785 (fall 2008)
Tuition, fees: $8,964 per semester, on campus undergraduate ($5,592, off); $17,928 per year on-campus ($11,184, off)
Location: 900 Chicon St.
Website: www.htu.edu/Phone: 512-505-3000

Huston-Tillotson University is a historically black college affiliated with The United Methodist Church, the United Church of Christ, and the United Negro College Fund (UNCF). The mission of the University is to provide its increasingly diverse student body with an exemplary education that is grounded in the liberal arts and sciences, balanced with professional development, and directed to public service and leadership. The University prepares students with the integrity and civility to thrive in a diverse society, fosters spiritual development, preserves and promotes interest in the accomplishments and experiences of the University's historic constituents and evolving population, and creates and sustains supportive relationships which advance the Huston-Tillotson University community.

St. Edward's University

Enrollment: 5,317 (fall 2008)
Tuition, fees: $12,020 per semester, undergraduate
Location: 3001 S. Congress Ave.
Website: www.stedwards.edu/Phone: 512-448-8400

St. Edward's University is a diverse, nationally recognized liberal arts institution overlooking downtown Austin, Texas. Founded in 1885 by the Congregation of Holy Cross, the university emphasizes critical thinking, social justice and ethical practice. Combining a rich, Catholic heritage with a clear vision for the future, St. Edward's is dedicated to preparing students for the opportunities and challenges that lie ahead in today's global community.

Southwestern University

Enrollment: 1,270 (fall 2008)
Tuition, fees: $30,220 per year
Location: 1001 E. University Ave., Georgetown

Website: www.southwestern.edu/Phone: 512-863-6511

Southwestern is a private, highly selective liberal arts institution encompassing the Brown College of Arts and Sciences and the Sarofim School of Fine Arts. Classroom learning is augmented by an environment that encourages participation in faculty-student research, athletics, intramural and recreational sports, and over 90 student organizations. Living-Learning Communities and the Paideia Program offer exceptional opportunities to fully integrate one's experiences in and out of the classroom.

Texas State University-San Marcos

Enrollment: 29,105 (fall 2008)
Tuition, fees: $3,084 per semester for 12 hours, Texas resident undergraduate; $6,408 per semester for 12 hours, non-Texas resident undergraduate
Location: 601 University Drive, San Marcos
Website: www.txstate.edu/Phone: 512-245-2111

Authorized by the Texas Legislature in 1899, Southwest Texas State Normal School opened its doors in 1903. Over the years, the Legislature broadened the institution's scope and changed its name, in succession, to Normal College, Teachers College, College, University, and in 2003 to Texas State University-San Marcos. Each name reflects the university's growth from a small teacher preparation institution to a major, multipurpose university. Through its nine academic colleges, Texas State offers nearly 200 undergraduate and post-graduate degrees to serve the needs of future generations of Texans.

Texas State Round Rock Higher Education Center

Enrollment: 1,525 (fall 2008)
Tuition, fees: The institutions (Texas State University-San Marcos, Austin Community College and Temple College at Taylor) that make up the campus determine tuition and fees.
Location: 1555 University Blvd., Round Rock
Website: www.rrhec.txstate.edu/Phone: 512-716-4000

The Round Rock Higher Education Center is Texas State University's campus in Round Rock. Texas State University, Austin Community College (ACC), and Temple College at Taylor (TCAT) partner to offer full Associate, Bachelor's, and Master's programs at convenient times and close to where students live and work. The RRHEC sits on 101 acres in northwest Round Rock and is the site where Texas State University-San Marcos will continue to build and grow a university campus to meet the needs of the Central Texas community. The Avery Building currently houses all programs and student services. The second building will house a nursing program and will open in Fall 2010.

University of Texas at Austin

Enrollment: 49,984 (fall 2008)
Tuition, fees: Starts at $4,344 per semester, undergraduate, Texas resident; starts at $14,254 per semester, undergraduate non-Texas resident
Location: 2400 Inner Campus Drive
Website: www.utexas.edu/Phone: 471-3434

The University of Texas at Austin is a major research university home to more than 50,000 students, 2,900 faculty and 21,000 staff members. The University of Texas at Austin is dedicated to improving the quality of life of the people of Texas and the United States. We are a leading provider of education and research with a depth and diversity of resources unmatched by most other public universities. As an enduring symbol of the spirit of Texas—big, ambitious and bold—the university drives economic and social progress in Texas and serves our nation as a leading center of knowledge and creativity.

Information supplied by www.austin360.com and is deemed reliable but not guaranteed.